Scott A. Petri Awarded “State Official of the Year” by Pennsylvania Bio

LANGHORNE, PA. June 2, 2015: Begley, Carlin & Mandio, LLP is pleased to announce that Scott A. Petri was recently awarded “State Official of the Year” by Pennsylvania Bio, the voice of advancement for Pennsylvania’s bioscience industry. This is the second time Mr. Petri has received the award. This year, he received the award as a result of his advocacy with regard to the research and development tax credit as part of the ongoing budget for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. As a State Representative, Mr. Petri serves as Chairman of the House Urban Affairs Committee, Chairman of the Ethics Committee and Co-chairman of the Life Science Caucus.

Scott A. Petri is one of the most respected lawyers and leaders in Southeastern Pennsylvania. Admitted to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in 1985, Mr. Petri has developed a reputation as a tireless servant to his clients. He is admitted to the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. He also has presented matters before various administrative agencies including the EEOC, the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission and the Department of Public Welfare. As a State Representative for parts of Upper Makefield, Northampton and Wrightstown Townships, Solebury and New Hope Borough, Mr. Petri is on the cutting edge of the development of laws which effect each and every one of us.

Before joining the legislature, Scott served as chairman of the Upper Makefield Planning Commission, and a member of the Joint Municipal Planning Commission. He also chaired the traffic impact committees and served as solicitor for Upper Makefield Township. A 1985 graduate of Villanova University School of Law, Mr. Petri received his undergraduate degree from Washington and Jefferson College (B.A. 1982).

With nineteen attorneys, the firm is one of the largest full-service law firms in Bucks County. From its office in Langhorne, the firm represents individuals, businesses, banks, municipalities, educational institutions, and school districts in a variety of practice areas including business law, litigation, trusts and estates, family law, real estate, elder and criminal law matters. A presence in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, since 1933, Begley, Carlin & Mandio, LLP is known as a firm with the reputation and community relations it takes to get things done.
